"ONWARD TO VICTORY"

FOREWORD

IN WAR, AS WELL AS IN PEACE, WE NEED MUSIC TO BUILD AND MAINTAIN PUBLIC MORALE. THROUGHOUT THESE TRYING TIMES OF NATIONAL EMERGENCY MUSIC IS A GREAT FACTOR IN SAFEGUARDING THE HOPE OF THE PEOPLE. MUSIC IS A UNIVERSAL LANGUAGE THROUGH WHICH ALL NATIONS CAN BE UNITED. AS WE TURN THROUGH THE PAGES OF THIS BOOK MAY THERE BE A SONG OF PEACE IN OUR HEARTS.

DEDICATION

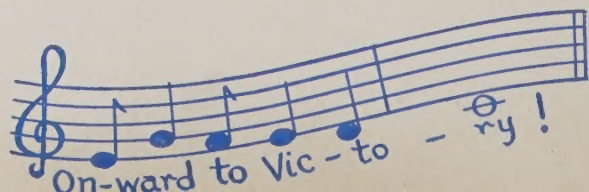

We dedicate the 1943 ROCKET to those boys who have gone from the carefree halls of schools here and all over our country into the Armed Service-----boys who have given up temporary freedom to make sure an ever-lasting freedom.

- - - - -

THE 1943 ROCKET SALUTES THE ARMED FORCES OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA.

God rest you merry gentlemen
Who laid your good lives down
Who took the khaki and the gun
Instead of Cap and Gown.
God bring you to a fairer place
Than even Oxford Town.

SENIORS

CLASS POEM

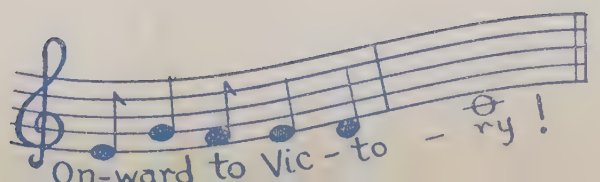

Tonight we turn our thoughts away
In memory of many a high school day.
These four long years together we've been;
So now, best wishes to friends we send.

Many of us traveled a difficult road,
And our school burdens were oft a load---
But now at the time for graduation
We'll forget those burdens as we look to our nation.

Our class colors, blue and white, will be
To us a guide 'til eternity;
And earnestly the Class of '43
Has as its motto "All for Victory".

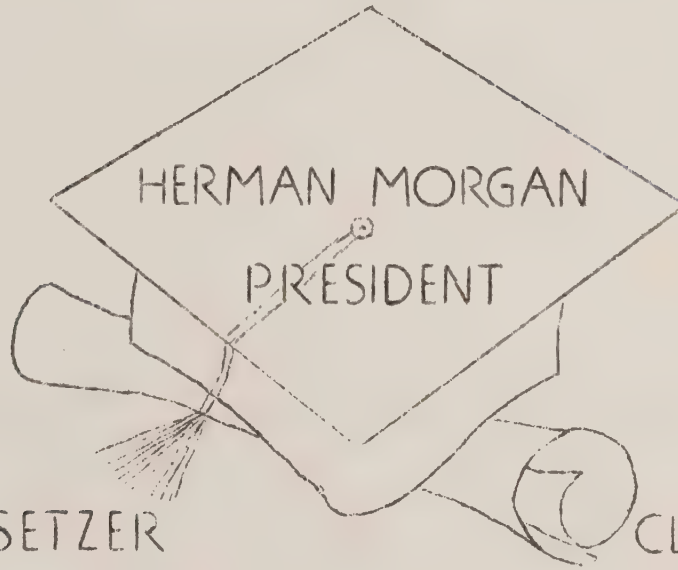

Leaving our friends who were so true
Is a sad and heart breaking thing to do.
But we turn our hearts and minds to MIGHT.
With the help of God, we'll win this fight.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

We, the Senior Class of 1943 do make, publish, and declare this to be our last Will and Testament in manner following:

To Mr. Brown, our deepest appreciation for everything he has done for us during our eleven years in school.

To the Juniors we leave our seats in chapel and all our books.

Members of the Senior Class bequeath to the following persons:

Lorene Arey leaves her place in the school store to Ruth Fowler.

Mildred Davis and J. V. Earnhardt give their typewriters to Louise Sides and Ruby Beaver.

Lillian Cooper offers her place as editor of the SCOOP to Lou Ellen Ketner.

Jimmy Kirk gladly gives his bus and keys to Ben Yost.

Ruby Eller bequeaths John Yorke Wagoner to anyone who can get him.

Marian Barton and Bill Trexler leave their nonchalant attitude to Kathleen Agner and Clyde Thomason.

Fred Morgan and Culp Trent leave their love for the girls to Fred Cooke and Billy Sides.

Irene Goodman and Sarah Catherine Peeler give their undying companionship to Imogene McLemore and Bonnie Fesperman.

Bonnie Peeler gladly hands over her math book to Buddy Lippard.

Louise Hedgecock and Hugh Beaver hand down their popularity to Peggy Lyerly and Billy Poole.

Clyde Barringer, Clyde Brown, and Ray Carter leave their athletic abilities to Lucius McHargue, Claude Cruse, and Joe Ketner.

Elsie Check and Nell Lefler bequeath their humorous jokes to Margaret Ella Stirewalt and Doris Louise Brown.

Evelyn Miller hands over her substitute teaching to Martha Peeler.

Sarah Boger and Herman Morgan bequeath their intellectual ability to Jimmy Eller and Ray Brown.

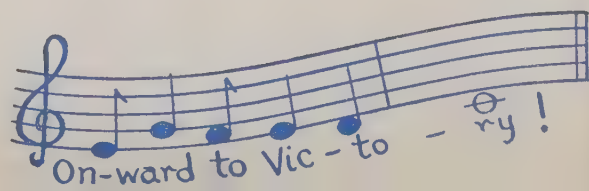

Naomi Brown and Betty Yost give their musical ability to Sarah Phoebe Misenheimer and Sarah Catherine Misenheimer.

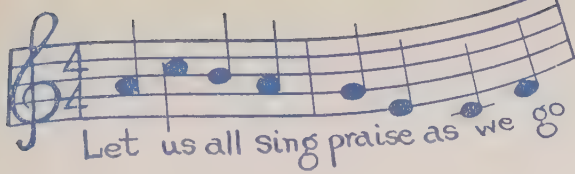

Norman Frick and Claude Beaver give their sense of humor to Lawrence Eller and Clinton Morgan.

Rebecca Brown, Carrie Trexler and Lucille Grant hand over places in the office to Minnie Lee Russell, Elizabeth Misenheimer and Betty Lou Shafer.

Bill Lombard leaves all of his excuses to Pete Honeycutt.

Mary Etta Trexler and Mary Elizabeth Trexler bequeath their artistic abilities to Dorothy McCulloch.

Mary Elizabeth Stirewalt and Inez Taylor leave their determination to Edith Lyerly and Edith Bost.

Frances Sides and Irma Setzer leave their friendliness to Gwenn Deal and Edna Alexander.

Hubert Agner, Robert Arey, J. W. Hampton, Raney Troutman and Henry Ritchie hand over their ability to blush to Glenn Ray Holshouser, Murphy Hampton, J. D. Goodman, Calvin Shaver, and Charlie Shepherd.

John Yorke Wagoner gives Donald Surratt a club to beat off the girls.

Robert Morgan hands over his good looks to Zeb Bost.

Mary Miller, Mary Heilig, Thelma Rattz and Ethel Lyerly leave their love for gabbing to Dorothy Alexander, Lois Shuping, Lola Null and Ann Shepherd.

Claude Harwood and Raymond E. Morgan leave their willingness to help to Fred Hill and Banks Barringer.

Kinard Fisher and Robert Kluttz hand over their love for chemistry experiments to Egbert Rowland and James Ward.

Thelma Holshouser and Billy Klutz bequeath their places in the library to Margaret Varnadore and Doris Ludwig.

Julia Fesperman hands over her charming personality to Susan Drew.

Rachel Goodman gives her shorthand book to Rose Brown.

E. Raymond Morgan regretfully leaves his quiet, bashful disposition to Bobby Holshouser.

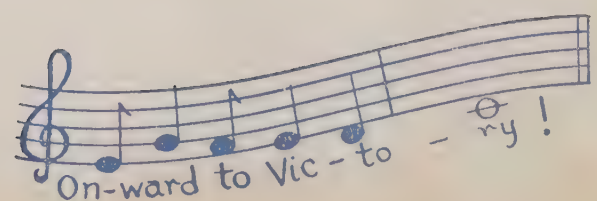

Beatrice Morgan, Lorene Hoffner, Bernice Funderburke and Louise Fisher hand over their ability to be quiet to Johnnie Sue Penninger, Mary Catherine Fesperman, Audrey Lee McLemore and Mary Lee Bost.

Susie Barger, Hazel Bost and Beatrice Bassinger hand down their neatness to Willie Howard, Zelia Bost and Doris Marie Brown.

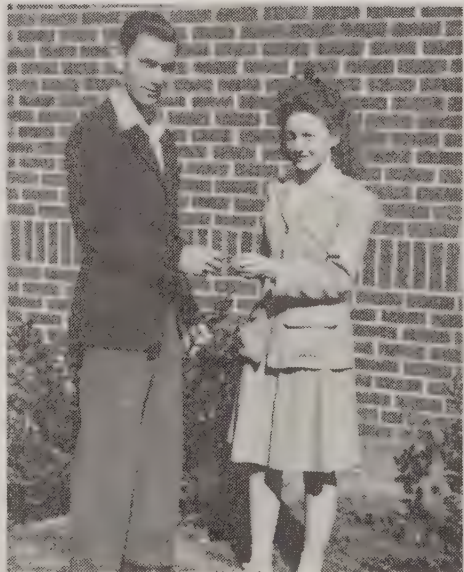

Ruth Funderburke and Mary Lou Cranford leave their friendship to Thelma Cozart and Helen Holshouser.

In witness, we, the Senior Class of 1943 do set our hand and seal.

CLASS PROPHECY

As we were walking down a quiet street in Washington, D. C. one afternoon our thoughts wandered back to Rockwell's graduating class of '43---our graduating class. We wondered where our friends were, and what they were doing. By chance we stopped before a door. A sign above it read "Madame Luza. Knows All, Sees All, Tells All." We went in and asked her to tell us about our Class of '43. This, in her own words, is the information given us.

"In an outstanding night club in New York I see a popular debutante, Irma Setzer, dining with her favorite escort, Ensign Robert Morgan of the United States Navy. Sweet music---Oh yes, that is being played by John Yorke Wagoner's well known orchestra. The spot light is now on the star entertainer, J. V. Earnhardt, a blues singer.

"The World Series has just ended in Brooklyn, and Ray Carter and Clyde Brown, stars of the winning team, are being entertained at a formal dinner by Ethel Lyerly and Billie Kluttz. Other important couples present are: Mary Heliig (Powers model) and Claude Harwood (Wall Street Broker), Susie Barger (hat designer) and Raymond E. Morgan (bank president), Sara Boger (author) and Herman Morgan (Professor of English at Yale University).

"Back in Rockwell I see Mildred Davis settled down to a quiet family life with Dr. William Lombard, Chief of Staff at the Rockwell Memorial Hospital. Coming down the corridor I see a beautiful nurse.---Why that's Frances Sides! No wonder it takes the patients so long to recover at the Rockwell Memorial Hospital.

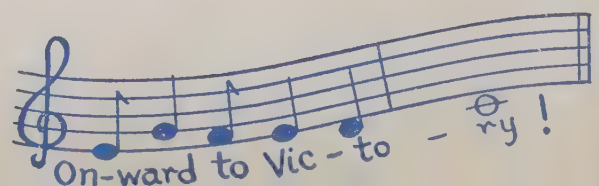

"At Rockwell High School I see Naomi Brown, French teacher; Rachel Goodman, head of the commercial department; Mary Miller, chemistry teacher; and Coach Raney Troutman all hard at work.

"In lower Rockwell, the part that was formerly Gold Hill, I see Jimmie Kirk about to make a campaign speech in behalf of Culp Trent, who is running for Governor of the State of North Carolina. In the crowd I see Senator Hubert Agner and a member of the House of Representatives, J. W. Hampton.

"In Salisbury I see Thelma Holshouser, editor of the Salisbury Evening Post, and Beatrice Morgan and Lucille Grant as star reporters.

"In Charlotte, North Carolina, I see a prominent business man, Robert Kluttz, dictating a letter to his blonde secretary, Irene Goodman.

"At a roadside restaurant near Raleigh, North Carolina a car stops and two attractive carhops dressed in white step up. They are none other than Bernice Funderburke and Thelma Rattz.

"The shortage of men has definitely had its effect on the female members of the Class of '43. In an Old Maids Home somewhere in Piedmont Carolina I find Lorene Hoffner and Marian Barton, along with Carrie Trexler, who owns and operates the home. The most popular literature read there is the famous book, 'How to Win a Husband', written by Sarah Catherine Peeler, a former resident. Her book has been highly beneficial to herself as well as to others.

"In a quiet village in----well, let's keep it quiet---I see Robert Arey and Beatrice Bassinger settled down in a little white house with green shutters. The paperboy, Kinard Fisher, is approaching. The newspaper headlines read, 'Elsie Cheek and Claude Beaver Wed'.

"In Florida I see Hazel Bost and Louise Fisher, co-owners of a large resort. Two very successful business girls.

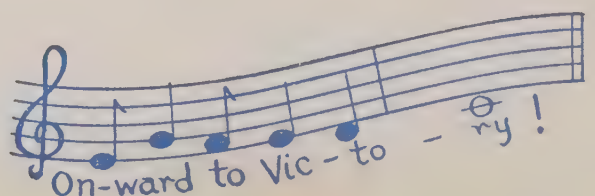

"The scene now changes to Hollywood, California. It seems that there is a movie star or two from every senior class. The Class of '43 is well represented by a lovely Mary Elizabeth Trexler and the most popular boy of the class, Hugh Beaver. These two have really made headlines. They are now co-starring in the M. G. M. picture, 'Dearly Beloved'.

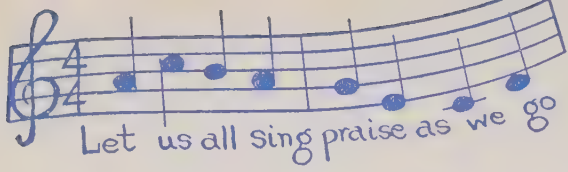

"In Chicago, Illinois, I see Rebecca Brown, proprietor of a dress shop. Her winning personality has helped her business a great deal.

"The Class of '43 is well represented in the Armed Forces too. In the Waacs I see Lorene Arey, Ruby Eller, and Lillian Cooper. In the Waves I see Inez Taylor and Mary Elizabeth Stirewalt. In the Spars I find Julia Fesperman, Louise Hedgecock and Evelyn Miller. In the Womens Marines I see Ruth Funderburke, Mary Lou Cranford and Bonnie Peeler. In the Army I recognize E. Raymond Morgan and Norman Frick. I see two fellows in the blue uniform of the Navy. They are Bill Trexler and Clyde Barringer. In the Marine Corps I see Fred Morgan and Henry Ritchie. In the Ferry Command I find Betty Yost ferrying bombers from the United States to England.

"This includes everyone except Nell Lefler and Mary Etta Trexler, who are standing before Madame Luza. They now operate a U. S. O. Center located here in Washington."

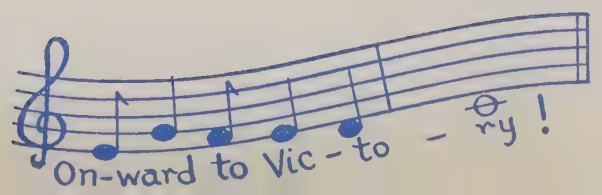

We left Madame Luza feeling very happy, because we realized that the Class of '43 was carrying on as nobly as it did way back in the days when we were still in high school.

Kind words are the music of the world. They have a power which seems to be beyond natural causes, as if they were some angel's song which had lost its way and come on earth.

JUNIOR GLEE CLUB

The Junior Glee Club is made up of a group of select voices from the fifth, sixth, seventh, and eighth grades.

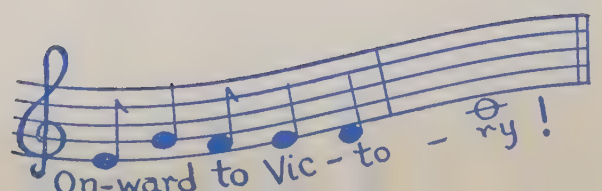

Onward, Christian soldiers! Marching as to war,
With the cross of Jesus going on before;
Christ, the royal Master, leads against the foe;
Forward into battle, see, His banners go!

Onward, then ye people! Join our happy throng,
Blend with ours your voices in the triumph song;
Glory, laud, and honor unto Christ the King.
This thro' countless ages men and angels sing.

Onward, Christian soldiers! Marching as to war,
With the cross of Jesus going on before.

This year in Rockwell High School interscholastic sports were discontinued. However, in their place was organized one of the most extensive intramural athletic programs in the school's history. Enthusiasm ran high as class teams fought with a new spirit for victory. Athletic hopes for the Blue and White look bright as many potential athletic stars were discovered. In addition to the intramural program, all students enjoyed bicycling, skating, and softball.
